

Brief Bio/Blurb

Michelle GOLD is a little Jewish girl in Brooklyn. Once disowned for her faith, rejected by her father & raised in a fun and dysfunctional family she is now filled with JOY & sings a new song of hope to the world.

As an overcomer of life's difficulties and trials as a Jewish woman, Michelle has risen out of the ashes. She is (a worldwide independent recording artist (also an author) and has opened up for Gladys Knight, sang for the legendary Lena Horne, and also for the surviving families of firefighters in NYC on 911. She and her husband Joe have toured the US, Europe, El Salvador, and Israel, sharing their faith & healing stories.

In addition to four albums on Apple Music (adding in a little Hebrew and in Spanish), Michelle has appeared on National TV shows, CBN (The 700 Club), and Sid Roth's "It's Supernatural."

Her vision, like Esther is to bring salvation & healing to her people for such a time as this.
